

FROM MURPHY TO MANTEO.

SOME THINGS THAT ARE HAPPENING IN NORTH CAROLINA.

What Has Happened in the Good Old State Since the Chronicle Last Greeted its Readers.

It is stated that not a pound of ice was saved in the State last winter.

The Marion town commissioners have determined to issue liquor licenses and have fixed the tax at $750.

The Greensboro commissioners have ordered the streets properly marked and the houses numbered. It is getting to be a progressive city and no mistake.

The young men in Washington will have a pole punching on the 9th of May. The Progress calls it a tournament.

We learn that the Sam Christian Gold Mine, in Montgomery, has ceased active operations, and a number of hands have been thrown out of employment.—Monroe Register.

Mr. E. H. Lyons and family formerly of Granville county, have moved on Mr. Albert Rountree's plantation in this county. Mr. Lyons is an experienced tobacco planter and will cultivate tobacco for Mr. Rountree.—Kinston Free Press.

The Farmers' Alliance and the citizens generally have come to the relief of John F. Gallant, of Steel Creek, whose property was destroyed by fire last Friday. At the meeting of the Alliance last Saturday it was decided to erect a dwelling and stables for Mr. Gallant.—Charlotte Chronicle.

The civil case of the town of Durham vs. the N. C. R. & D. R. R. company, was heard on a motion before Judge Armfield yesterday afternoon, and was removed to Chatham county for trial. It is learned that the defendants alleged they could not get justice in Durham.—Durham Sun.

Mr. Alfred Jurney, of Fredell county, has been bound over to the Federal court under the charge of counterfeiting. The Landmark says: It is alleged that Mr. Jurney had embarked in the business of making nickles on his own account, whereas, the United States government claims a monopoly of that industry.

The young men of Louisburg are making great preparations for a grand ball, which will be given in the new opera house on Thursday night, May 1st. The Times learns that the young men will spare no efforts to make the occasion a most pleasant one to all whose pleasure it shall be to attend.—Louisburg Times.

We are pained to learn of a sad accident which occurred near Jackson Hill last Friday. Mr. Joseph Edwards and his little son were hauling wood, when the wind blew a tree down on them, killing the boy instantly and seriously wounding Mr. Edwards, but it is thought that he will recover. We are unable to get further particulars.—Lexington Dispatch.

The Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of the State of North Carolina, will meet in this city on Tuesday, May 13th, and a big time is anticipated by the brethren. Cape Fear and Orion Lodges of this city have each elected their representatives to the Grand Lodge and have appointed committees to make preparations for its coming.—Wilmington Messenger.

Work upon the farms is being actively pushed during the present fine weather, and as a consequence but few farmers are to be seen in the city. There is but little complaint of lack of labor, and it is not likely there will be any further exodus this year, the news of the disaster in the Yazoo and Mississippi delta having somewhat dampened the ardor of the negroes in this section.—Goldsboro Correspondent Messenger.

The Messenger announces that the managers of the Orton Hotel at Wilmington have decided to close up the hotel for six months, beginning with May 1st. Col. Murchison, the owner of the Orton, says that the Orton shall be a first-class hotel or he will not run it at all. The railroad schedules are against the hotel interests of Wilmington, that is so far as Northern tourists are concerned, which is the reason Col. Murchison gives for the suspension.

During the past ten days some of the finest shad we have ever seen from the Cape Fear river have been offered on this market—a "catch" piled in front of a fish and meat stall on Person street one day last week weigh 7 to 8 pounds each. If we mistake not the State Fish Commission some years ago placed a quantity of Connecticut shad in this stream—and the fisherman can tell us whether that has had anything to do with the size and quality of the present supply.—Fayetteville Observer.

The citizens of Reidsville are to hold a mass-meeting for the purpose of discussing the long agitated question of removing the county seat of Rockingham from Wentworth to Reidsville. The Review says: This matter has been brought more prominently before the minds of the people since the destruction of the county jail at Wentworth last Monday morning, and many of our leading citizens have already expressed themselves as being heartily in favor of the removal being made as early as practicable.

Mr. A. G. Finch writes us from Wilson county that the cold weather has been very disastrous to tobacco plants in that section. While the farmers have anticipated planting a large acreage and have made extensive preparations, the outlook at present is very gloomy. He has plants enough, he says, but not more than one planter in five has, and it is generally supposed that at least two-thirds of the plants are killed. Many are resowing their plant beds and burning new ones.—Henderson Gold Leaf.
